You must notify us in writing if you have previously agreed not to erect a To-Let Board with the Superior Landlord, freeholder or other interested party, or local byelaws or conservation area restrictions prevent the erection of a Board.
 - c. As and when we have applicants interested in viewing your Premises, we will either accompany these people to your Premises with keys provided by you or arrange a mutually convenient appointment for them and us to meet you at the Premises.
 - d. Negotiate any offers received between you and the applicant and confirm all the terms of the offer to you for acceptance.

 - c. The Immigration Act 2014 and 2016 imposes an obligation on the Landlord to check the passport or other identity documents with the applicant or any permitted occupier present and to check that any person who requires a visa or work permit holds the valid authorisation and is complying with its terms. We will check this information at the before they commence occupation but if we do not manage the Premises it will be the responsibility of the Landlord to ensure that the work permit or visa are renewed. The Landlord agrees that they fully understand that failure to comply with the legislation is a criminal offence and can result in financial penalties and sanctions.
 - d. When we proceed, we will be doing so without any responsibility for the accuracy of those references or the information contained in them, unless it is due to our negligence or breach of contract. We will not be warranting the Tenant as suitable.
 - e. An Inventory and Schedule of Condition is essential for the proper conduct of your Premises, whether they are let furnished or unfurnished, to reduce the risk of a dispute arising about the Deposit. Inventories should, where applicable, show that furnishings and electrical equipment comply with current legislation. If you do not have an Inventory and Schedule of Condition you will not be able to prove the condition of the Premises at the start of the Tenancy and may not be able to obtain compensation from the Tenant either through any Tenancy Deposit Protection Scheme or through the County Court. We have no liability for any loss suffered if you do not have a fully comprehensive Inventory.

- f. We do not employ Inventory clerks. We can instruct an inventory clerk on your behalf subject to a fee for which you will be liable as shown in Additional Services. The fees of the inventory clerk will be given to you prior to instruction. We are not liable for any error or omission of the inventory clerk.

Our standard Tenancy Agreement provides that the Landlord will pay for the inventory Schedule of Condition, check in and check out by an independent inventory clerk to determine whether or not there is any damage, or compensation for breach of the Tenancy, or cleaning needed taking into account the check-in report of the Inventory and Schedule of Condition. A copy of the check-out report will be sent to both you and the Tenant for comment.

- g. Prepare a comprehensive Tenancy Agreement setting out the rights and obligations of both parties including any special terms that have been agreed. If you wish to use a Tenancy Agreement drafted by your own solicitor, please supply us with a draft within a reasonable time before the Tenancy is due to commence. There will be an additional administration fee for using your Tenancy Agreement or if amendments are made by you or your solicitor to our standard Tenancy Agreement which is shown in our Additional Services section.
- h. Notify the electricity, gas, water and the local authority when the Tenant occupies your Premises provided you have supplied us with the contact details of your utility suppliers including the account numbers and ask them to send a credit agreement and supply contract to the Tenant. You will need to pay any outstanding utility charges up to and including the date upon which the Tenant occupies the Premises and for any void period between tenancies. We will need to provide the utility suppliers with your new address and the meter readings at the commencement of the Tenancy to ensure that there are no discrepancies with the changeover. Some suppliers will not take instructions from us in which case you must contact them direct to take the accounts out of your name.
- i. Arrange the cleaning of the Premises if instructed in writing to do so.
- j. Collect the first month's Rent and if necessary subsequent payments to pay our Commission, together with the Deposit which is usually equivalent to 5 weeks rent, and try to arrange the signing of a standing order so that future Rent payments are made promptly direct to your bank account.
- k. Hold the Deposit paid by the Tenant as Stakeholder against damage, breach of the Tenancy Agreement or any other outstanding charges owed by the Tenant. We will register the details of the Deposit and the two parties to the Tenancy Agreement with the TDS and serve the Prescribed Information. We will protect the deposit and serve the Prescribed Information within thirty days.
- l. Request a minimum of three sets of keys from the Landlord prior to the Tenancy commencing. If you do not comply and we have additional sets cut to enable you to comply with this obligation charges will be made as outlined in the Additional Services.
- m. Arrange for a Gas Safe engineer to check the gas appliances and installations and provide a Gas Safety Record ("GSR") if we have not received a copy of a current GSR five days before the Tenancy commences. The cost will be deducted from the initial payment of Rent. If we do not manage the Premises, it is the legal responsibility of the Landlord to arrange all future gas checks. We have no liability if you fail to do so.
- n. Serve Notice to end the Tenancy if requested in writing and you do not wish to renew or extend the Tenancy as shown under Renewals below. If the Management Service is not used this will be subject to a tenancy renewal fee as shown in The Landlord Fee Schedule £120.00 (Inc. VAT). You must provide us with at least ten weeks written warning that you want to end the Tenancy either at the end of the fixed Term or according to a break clause. We cannot be held liable for any delay in getting possession if you provide insufficient time for service of the Notice.

- o. Arrange a check out appointment of the Inventory if we manage the Premises.
- p. Advise you that if a formal offer has been made by a prospective Tenant and you then inform us that you wish to withdraw from the proposed Tenancy that it may not be possible to withdraw the offer if it has been accepted. If you refuse to proceed the Tenant could take legal action against you for any losses suffered. If a prospective Tenant agrees to accommodate your request, you should expect to meet reasonable costs and expenses incurred by him or her.
- q. Inform you that you must notify us of any change in your residency.
- r. Notify you that it is not part of our normal function to forward the Client's mail. Therefore, no responsibility can be taken for mail sent to you at the Premises. We recommend that you arrange for it to be redirected by the Post Office.
- s. Advise that if you use the Letting Service or the Letting and Rent Collection Service it will be your responsibility to arrange repairs and to provide the Tenant with copies of all instruction books, guarantees and maintenance contracts. If you fail to do so you may incur additional costs and the Tenant may be entitled to compensation. We do not arrange repairs if we do not manage the Premises.
- t. Advise that if the Tenant leaves the Premises of their own accord prior to the expiration of the Tenancy it is your responsibility to take the appropriate action to recover any outstanding Rent from the former Tenant.

3. Renewal

We will do the following:

- a. Contact you towards the end of the initial fixed Term to find out if the Tenancy should be renewed and to agree any renewal instructions. We will review the Rent and advise you if a Rent increase is possible or desirable depending upon current market conditions. You must confirm to us in writing if you wish the Tenancy to be renewed, continue as a periodic Tenancy or notice served. We do not serve notice on the Tenant unless you instruct us to do so in writing.
- b. Contact the Tenant once written confirmation has been received from you requesting the Tenancy to be renewed or extended as a periodic Tenancy asking if they wish to renew the Tenancy and advising of any proposed Rent increase if a new fixed Term is agreed. We will then negotiate between the two parties if requested. We will prepare the extension document for both parties where requested including drafting any new or special clauses agreed between the parties varying the terms of the original Tenancy. The extension documents will be sent to both parties for signature.
- c. Try to ensure both parties sign the documentation by the start date of the new period of the Tenancy. However, if the Tenant fails to return the extension documents the Tenancy will continue as a periodic Tenancy until either party gives notice in writing. Our commission will be payable whether the Tenancy continues as a fixed Term or a periodic Tenancy whether or not we are instructed to act on your behalf. While we will make every effort to obtain the signed extension documents we have no liability if the Tenant fails to return them.

- d. Date the signed documents once we have received them to complete the contract and send the documents received to the relevant party.
- e. Inform you that if the Tenant has a statutory periodic tenancy rather than agreeing a new fixed Term then the Rent can only be lawfully increased, in the absence of a written agreement by both parties, on an annual basis if we serve the Tenant with a valid Notice under Section 13(2) of the Housing Act 1988. This notice advises the Tenant has a right to challenge the increase by serving you with a counter notice and ultimately referring the increase to the First Tier Tribunal (“FTT”). This could result in a hearing. If the Tenant makes a counter proposal, we will ask you whether you wish to accept it or whether you wish to pursue the issue to a hearing. If you want to do the latter, we can arrange for solicitors to act on your behalf. You will be responsible for their charges.
- f. When a tenancy is renewed, or a statutory periodic tenancy arises the Deposit must continue to be properly protected in the relevant Scheme.
- g. If you prefer to negotiate any renewal personally our fees for the Letting Service will continue to be payable according to Schedule 1 above for the duration of the time the Tenant occupies the Premises.
- h. If you negotiate any renewal personally it will be your responsibility to ensure that the Deposit remains protected whether you have negotiated a new fixed term or on the arising of a statutory periodic tenancy. You must pay us for any loss or inconvenience suffered or cost incurred by us if you fail to comply with your statutory obligations to protect the Deposit.

Schedule 3: Rent Collection

1. In addition to the Letting Service detailed above we will use our best efforts to arrange for a standing order to be set up so that the Tenant can send future Rent payments direct to us. Payments received will be sent to you at the first opportunity after receipt of cleared funds, less our agreed fees and expenses into your nominated bank or building society account.
2. You should set up a facility with your bank to ensure payment of all regular outgoings to take account of alterations to the payment dates, void periods or failure by the Tenant to pay any sums due.
3. We cannot be held responsible if the Tenant fails to pay any sum due under the Tenancy Agreement unless it is due to our negligence or breach of contract. We will however act in your name to recover unpaid monies by serving the appropriate letter requesting payment to the Tenant. If this does not have the desired effect, we will advise you to instruct specialist solicitors to take further action. You will be responsible for any legal charges and expenses incurred.

Schedule 4: Full Management

1. In addition to the above Services we will do the following:
 - a. Pay current outgoings such as ground rent if applicable, any service charge and/or maintenance charge or similar contribution to shared expenses and account to you regularly provided we hold sufficient funds. Although we will do our best to query any obvious discrepancies, we are entitled to accept and pay, without question, demands and accounts that appear to be in order. We cannot accept responsibility for the verification of any service or maintenance charge demands or estimates where applicable. We have no liability for any discrepancy in any invoices paid on your behalf to or any dispute with any third parties unless the loss is due to our negligence or breach of contract. It is the responsibility of the Landlord to ensure that invoices and demands are sent direct to us.
 - b. Deal with day-to-day management matters, including minor repairs, the case of an emergency or to enable you to comply with statute. By signing this Agreement, you agree that we can instruct contractors on your behalf and deduct the cost of repairs and maintenance from the Rent.
 - c. Instruct tradesmen to carry out any maintenance, repairs or other work on your behalf. By signing this Agreement, you give us authority to instruct contractors on your behalf and deduct the cost of their invoices. You however remain liable for the payment of all invoices to tradesmen.
 - d. Use a particular contractor if requested by you provided, we have copies of their professional qualification, public liability insurance and the person is readily available. If any damage is caused by the negligence or failure of tradesmen specified by the Landlord, we the Agent, will not be liable for any loss suffered.
 - e. Advise that we are not liable for any loss or damage suffered by you if we are unable to carry out repairs or maintenance because the Tenant refuses access; unless the loss or damage is due to our negligence or breach of contract.
 - f. Visit the Premises approximately twice each year, or more frequently if requested in writing and deemed necessary by you which will be subject to a charge as shown in Schedule 1 provided the Tenant grants access. If the Tenant does not grant access, we will inform you, but it will be your responsibility to take legal advice and advise us of the appropriate action. These visits are of a limited nature in order to verify the general good order of the Premises and the proper conduct of the Tenancy by the Tenant. A visit will not constitute a complete check of every part of or every item in the Premises but enable us to note any visible lack of repair or maintenance which should be brought to your attention. A visit will only note repairs of which we are informed, or which are clearly visible. We are not liable for any loss or damage due to hidden or latent defects.
 - g. Supervision of the Premises is not part of our management function when it is unoccupied. If you wish us to manage your Premises during a void period, we will gladly do so subject to the charges specified in Schedule 1 which are payable in advance together with your written instructions. We will visit the Premises once a week during office hours being Monday to Friday between 9am and 5pm. We will inform you of any lack of repair or maintenance but will not instruct a contractor unless we hold cleared funds, you confirm in writing we may deduct the cost of the contractor from those funds, and you agree in writing to pay our administration fee as shown in Schedule 1.

- h. Try to arrange a mutually convenient time for contractors to meet the Tenant when attending the Premises to undertake work on your behalf. Where this is not possible, we may be able to arrange to meet the contractor at the Premises. We do not meet contractors if we do not manage the Premises.
 - i. Endeavour to obtain a forwarding address to give to the water company to comply with the Flood and Water Management Act 2010 which makes payment of the final water account the liability of the Landlord if no forwarding address is provided. We cannot be held liable if the Tenant does not provide an address or gives an address that is not deemed acceptable by the water company.
2. Either party may withdraw instructions to manage the Premises upon giving three months' written notice. However, our fees for the Let Only Service remain payable as long as the tenant is in occupation as specified in Schedule 1 in the event that we terminated the agreement in line with The General Summary Schedule clause 11c of our Terms of Business or alternatively, you wish to terminate the agreement where there has been no breach by us as your agents.

Schedule 5: Landlord's Undertakings

Consent for Letting

1. By signing these Terms and Conditions you warrant to us that you are the owner of the Premises, or otherwise lawfully entitled to enter into a Tenancy Agreement. You MUST provide us with sufficient documentary evidence to satisfy us and the Tenant that you are entitled to do so, by providing us with a copy of the Land Registry. Alternatively, we can provide this service for you, please refer to Schedule 1, Fees and Commissions. You will be liable to provide us with a full indemnity for any costs, losses, or other expenses we may bear due to you not having the right to enter into an Occupation Agreement.

Mortgage

2. If the Premises are subject to a mortgage, you will need your mortgagee's written consent to the proposed letting. By signing this Agreement, you confirm that you have your mortgagee's consent to grant a Tenancy and this MUST be provided to us upon instruction. The mortgagee may want to see a copy of the Tenancy Agreement, which can be supplied upon written request. The mortgagee may charge you a fee for giving their permission. If your mortgagee has any special conditions relating to the Tenancy or type of Tenant, you must provide them to us prior to the start of the Tenancy to be included within the Tenancy Agreement. Conditions cannot be imposed upon a Tenant at a later date. You will be liable to provide us with a full indemnity for any costs, losses, or other expenses we may bear due to you not having the proper consent from your mortgagee to enter into a Tenancy Agreement. If your mortgage payment is due within seven days after your rent due date, we strongly advise that you contact your mortgage lender to change this.

Sub-letting

3. If you are a leaseholder, you will normally require the consent from your Superior Landlord, freeholder or their managing agent before you can sub-let the Premises to an applicant. If applicable, we must be provided with evidence of such consent having been given. In giving consent the Superior Landlord or their managing agent may require you to provide references for your Tenant and for you and your Tenant to enter into an agreement to observe the covenants contained in your head lease. A fee may be charged for granting consent to sub-let, which is your liability, and for the licence granted prior to the start of the Tenancy and upon renewal. We will need a copy of any sections of the head lease that impose restrictions on the behaviour of the Tenant together with any schedules referred to therein so that we can attach a copy of this to the Tenancy Agreement. If the Tenant is not given a copy of the relevant sections of the head lease you cannot impose any obligations contained in it upon them. This could lead you to breach the terms of your lease. You will be liable to provide us with a full indemnity for any costs, losses, or other expenses we may bear due to you not having the proper consent from your Superior Landlord to enter into a Tenancy Agreement.

Insurance

4. It is essential that the Premises and the contents included in the Inventory and Schedule of Condition are adequately insured and that your insurers are aware that the Premises are let. Failure to do so may invalidate your insurance. You must inform your insurers whenever the Premises remain vacant for a period greater than specified in your insurance policy. You should also check that your insurance policies include third party liability to protect you if the Tenant or a visitor to the Premises is injured. You will also need to ensure that public liability is noted on the insurance policy. You will need to ensure that the insurer is aware if the Tenant is claiming housing benefit. You must give us copies of any section of your insurance policies that impose restrictions on the behaviour of any Tenants of the Premises to attach to the Tenancy Agreement at its commencement, including any conditions for vacant premises. If these are not given to the Tenant then they have no obligation to comply, which could be breach of your insurance contract rendering any claim void. We cannot be responsible for the renewal of your insurance cover. We strongly recommend you arrange for an insurance policy that includes amongst others cover for loss of Rent, contents, and legal expenses. Mortimers will arrange for a quotation to be provided for you form our Insurance Partner, the Lettings Hub, unless you instruct us otherwise.

Taxation

5. You will be liable for tax on income arising from letting the Premises and you must inform Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs ("HMRC") that you are letting the Premises. There are a number of allowances that you can claim against this income. You should seek advice on these allowances from your accountant or from the HMRC website which can be accessed on www.hmrc.gov.uk. You must also keep all your invoices for six years for tax purposes. You should be aware that we forward a form to the HMRC annually detailing all landlords whose Premises we have let and the rental income they have received, regardless of the country of residence of that landlord.

The HMRC has special rules regarding the collection of tax on rental income if you are a landlord who is resident overseas for a period of more than six months in any tax year, or you subsequently move abroad. If you fall into this category it is your responsibility to obtain a tax approval number from HMRC, in accordance with the Finance Act 1995.

The relevant form and guidance notes can be downloaded from www.hmrc.gov.uk. Until that approval number is given to us by the HMRC we are legally obliged to deduct tax from your rental income at the prevailing rate, which is currently 20%. This money is forwarded to HMRC on a quarterly basis. For any period during which we deduct tax from your lettings income due to you not providing us with an Approval Number or you are not being accepted into the Non-Resident Landlord Scheme we shall make an administration charge as shown in Schedule 1. If the Tenant pays you direct, and you are non-resident in this country, and he has not received approval from HMRC to pay the Rent gross he must deduct tax and forward that to HMRC on your behalf. No person or organisation is exempt from this scheme.

Should you move outside of the UK during a tenancy, you will need to make us aware as soon as possible. You are liable to pay all property taxes for periods where the property is vacant. You will also need to keep and maintain your records for VAT purposes. We will hold copies of your rental statements should you require them.

Rent Arrears or Breach of Covenant

6. It is your responsibility to take all necessary steps to ensure that actions are taken to protect your interests, including instructing solicitors and commencing legal proceedings to preserve your rights and recover arrears of Rent and to defend all actions or other legal proceedings and arbitrations that may be brought against you in connection with the Premises. All costs and disbursements incurred including legal costs and disbursements will be payable by you.

Reimbursement of the Agent

7. You will keep us reimbursed and indemnified for and against any claim, damage, expense or liability whether criminal or civil suffered by us from and during the time that we are or were acting on your behalf unless it is due to our negligence or breach of contract. For the avoidance of any doubt we reserve the right to have work carried out on your behalf and to charge you for that work to ensure that you fulfil your contractual and statutory obligations as a landlord. If any Notice is served on the Agent under the Housing Health and Safety Rating Scheme of the Housing Act 2004 requiring the Agent to carry out any work, repairs or maintenance of the Premises the Landlord will reimburse the Agent promptly on demand for all costs expenses and fees incurred.

Water Rates

8. You should endeavour to obtain a forwarding address from the Tenant at the end of the Tenancy if we do not manage the Premises to give to the water company to comply with the Flood and Water Management Act 2010 which makes payment of the final water account the liability of the Landlord as from October 2011 if no forwarding address is provided. We cannot be held liable if we do not manage the Premises; the Tenant does not provide an address or gives an address that is not deemed acceptable by the water company. The water companies have now provided a website called LandlordTAP, <https://www.landlordtap.com/> for registration of the name and address of the current account holder for the water at the Premises. It is your responsibility to ensure the information is current to prevent any liability arising for yourself relating to water charges.

Sub-Contractors

9. Any other party, including but not limited to, external inventory clerks, gas, electrical or water engineers, builders or surveyors, Domestic Energy Inspectors, or solicitors who we instruct will be instructed on your behalf. This means that you are the contracting party and that you have the primary liability for the payment of that sub-contractor's invoices, fees, charges or other expenses and that they, and not we, owe you a liability for the quality of their work. We may make a referral commission charge to the sub-contractor or supplier at 10% (Inc. VAT). This percentage is calculated on the total sum of the invoice received for any works instructed by the Agent. This commission is capped at £100.00 (Inc. VAT). To clarify, any works carried out by the contractor or supplier in excess of £1000.00 (Inc. VAT), commission will not be charged in excess of £100.00 (Inc. VAT).

Housing Act 2004

10. Due to this Act certain types of Premises may require a licence before they can be let. It is your responsibility to determine whether you need a licence and to obtain that licence. You agree to keep us fully indemnified against all losses, costs or damages we might incur, whether criminal or civil, due to your failure to obtain an adequate licence for the letting of your Premises. If we become aware that the Premises are let in a manner which requires a licence and you refuse to obtain one, we reserve the right to terminate our instruction immediately and to inform any Tenants or Occupiers of the Premises and the Local Housing Authority of the situation.

Also, as part of the Housing Act 2004 private dwellings must comply with the Housing Health and Safety Rating System ("HHSRS") which is a means of measuring hazards and risk of injury at the Premises. This system applies to all properties but is most commonly applied to tenanted property. The responsibility for ensuring the Premises comply is entirely that of the Landlord. If we accept an instruction to let the Premises and subsequently an order is served to comply with the HHSRS or if we incur any costs for compliance due to an order being served upon us you agree to reimburse us within fourteen days of written demand or by way of deduction from monies paid to us by the Tenant or from any other property owned by you where we collect or hold sums on your behalf.

Maintenance & Repairs

11. You will need to ensure that at the commencement of tenancy the Property is suitably clean for occupation by the tenants. You will also have to maintain the Property in good standard of repair throughout the tenancy term whilst occupied by a Tenant. All necessary repairs and maintenance will need to be resolved as and when it is required, as stated in the terms of the Tenancy Agreement.

Indemnity

12. If you ask us to do anything which we consider to involve a higher risk to us or to you or which is outside our normal procedure we may ask you for a written agreement to indemnify us against any loss, damage or other costs which we might incur as a result of following your instructions. If you refuse to provide this to us, then we reserve the right to refuse your instructions and to terminate this Agreement.

Houses in Multiple Occupation (HMO)

13. Complying with any order made by local authority relating to HMOs and completing any works required (prior to the tenancy commencing).

England and Wales Postal Address

14. Arranging postal re-direction at the property and providing us with an address in England or Wales for the Tenant to serve legal notices on you.

Keys

15. Providing us with a minimum number of sets of keys, for the number of occupants agreed, together with any door entry and/or car park fobs, communal entrance codes and/or keys, and any alarm codes. All window keys must be left at the Property. Any costs incurred by the Agent for new keys will be charged to the Landlord, along with the addition of an administration charge, which can be found on the service level on page 5.

Disputes

16. Inform us if you have a dispute regarding the contents of a check out report within 7 days of receiving it from the Agent.

House Builders' Guarantee

17. Providing us with details of any House Builders' Guarantee if applicable.

Security during Void Periods

18. The security of the Property during periods of vacancy are the Landlord's responsibility.

Availability

19. If the Landlord fails to have the Property available for the period stated on page 5, the agent will not be responsible for any Tenant's abortive costs and the Landlord shall indemnify the Agent accordingly as stated above.

General Authority

20. By signing this contract, you are confirming that you have the legal right to let the Property from which we have received your instruction. You will need to confirm to us in writing if any of the events listed occur: Notice to terminate our agency, appointment of other agents including estate agents offering the property for sale, notice to terminate or vary the terms of an active tenancy, approval for maintenance work in excess of your delegated spend limit, changes to your bank details, changes to your residency address, changes to your contact details, exchange or completion of a sale of the property or legal proceedings, bankruptcy or insolvency orders that have been issue against you.

VAT). Should any of our marketing materials be used for marketing purposes by yourself or an appointed agent without our express permission then you will automatically become liable for payment of our marketing fee.

Cancellation charges

22. In the event of the Landlord terminating the agreement once a prospective Tenant has been found who is willing and able to proceed, the fee equivalent to the Set Up Fee shall be payable by the Landlord to the Agent. Should the Landlord secure their own tenant for the Property whilst the Property is under the terms of this agency agreement, the Landlord shall permit the Agency to carry out their referencing procedures and move the prospective tenants into the property at a cost of £295.00 (Inc. VAT)

Schedule 6: Deposit Handling (Agent to Hold through TDS)

1. Upon the Tenant vacating the Premises and after deduction of all agreed or authorised deductions, the balance of the Deposit shall be refunded to the person or persons outlined at clause 7.1 above.
2. The Deposit will be held by the Agent as Stakeholder. The Agent is a member of the Tenancy Deposit Scheme ('TDS Insured') operated by The Dispute Service ('TDS').
3. The Landlord's Agent will protect the Deposit within 30 days of the commencement of the Tenancy or receipt of the Deposit, whichever is earlier, and give to the Tenant and to any Relevant Person a copy of the Prescribed Information together with details of the scheme applicable to the registration of the Deposit.
4. Any interest earned on the holding of the Deposit will belong to Mortimers.
The Deposit has been taken for the following purposes:
 - a. Any fees or other monies that the Agent is entitled to recover from the Tenant pursuant to the Agreement.
 - b. Any rent or other money due or payable by the Tenant under the Tenancy of which the Tenant has been made aware and which remains unpaid after the end of the Tenancy. This will include a fee which any Agent is entitled to recover from the Tenant.
 - c. Any damage, or compensation for damage, to the Premises, its Fixtures and Fittings, or for missing items for which the Tenant may be liable, subject to an apportionment or allowance for fair wear and tear, the age and condition of each, and any such item at the commencement of the Tenancy, insured risks and repairs that are the responsibility of the Landlord.

At the end of the Tenancy:

6. The Landlord/Agent must tell the Tenant within ten working days of the end of the Tenancy if they propose to make any deductions from the Deposit.

If there is no dispute the Landlord/Agent will keep or repay the Deposit, according to the agreed deductions and the conditions of the Agreement. Payment of the Deposit or any balance of it will be made within ten working days of the Landlord and the Tenant agreeing the allocation of the Deposit.

The Tenant should inform the Landlord/Agent in writing if the Tenant intends to dispute any of the deductions required by the Landlord or the Agent from the Deposit within ten working days of the Landlord/Agent having complied with the requirements of clause 7.7.1. The Independent Case Examiner ('ICE') may regard failure to comply with the time-limit as a breach of the rules of TDS and if later asked to resolve any dispute, the ICE may refuse to adjudicate in the matter. In the event of multiple Tenants comprising the Tenant, each of them agrees with the other(s) that any one of them may consent on behalf of all the others to use alternative dispute resolution through TDS to deal with any dispute about the Deposit at the end of the Tenancy. If, after ten working days following notification of a dispute to the Landlord/Agent and reasonable attempts having been made in that time to resolve any differences of opinion, there remains an unresolved dispute between the Landlord and the Tenant over the allocation of the Deposit the dispute will (subject to 7.7.6 below) be submitted to the ICE for adjudication. All parties agree to co-operate with the adjudication process.

The rights of the Landlord, the Agent and of the Tenant to take legal action through the County Court remain unaffected by clause 7.7.5 above.

If there is a change of Landlord during the Tenancy, the Tenant shall consent to the transfer of the amount of the Deposit (or the balance of it) to the purchaser or transferee of the Premises at which point the Landlord shall be released from any further claim or liability in respect of the Deposit or any part of it, recognising that the Deposit is protected and will continue to be protected by TDS.

The Landlord shall not be obliged to refund the Deposit or any part of the Deposit on any change in the person or persons who for the time being comprise 'the Tenant'.

Where more than one person is comprised for the time being in the expression 'the Tenant', the Deposit may be repaid to any one Tenant and this repayment shall discharge the Landlord from any further liability in respect of the amount so repaid.

Any goods or personal effects belonging to the Tenant or members of the Tenant's household which shall not have been removed from the Premises within 14 days after the expiry or sooner, termination of the Tenancy created by this Agreement shall be deemed to have been abandoned provided that the Landlord shall have used his reasonable endeavours to give written notice of the same to the Tenant.

In such circumstances the Landlord shall be entitled to dispose of such abandoned goods or personal effects as he shall see fit. The Tenant shall in any event indemnify the Landlord for any costs incurred by the Landlord in connection with the removal, storage or sale of such items. The Tenant shall pay by way of damages to the Landlord any additional expenses which the Landlord shall have reasonably incurred in checking the Inventory and Schedule of Condition if the same could not reasonably be finalised until any goods or personal effects belonging to the Tenant have been removed from the Premises.

During the Tenancy

7. We will hold the Deposit as Stakeholder in our client account (separate from the money we use to run our business).

Interest earned on the Deposit will belong to the person entitled to it under the Tenancy Agreement. If the Tenancy Deposit Scheme directs us to send the Deposit to them, we must do that within 10 days of receiving their direction. The Scheme will not normally direct us to send them the Deposit unless there is a dispute about how it is to be paid at the end of the Tenancy.

Where there is NO dispute about the Deposit at the end of the Tenancy

8. At the end of an AST we will liaise with you to ascertain what (if any) deductions you propose to make from the Deposit or have already agreed with the Tenant. [We will help you to try and resolve any areas of dispute within a reasonable time obtaining quotations, estimates or arranging contractors on your behalf in accordance your instructions if we manage the Premises].

Once you and the Tenant have agreed how the Deposit should be allocated, we will ask you both to confirm your agreement in writing. We will then pay the Deposit according as you and the Tenant have agreed, within 10 days of receiving written confirmation of agreement from both parties. We cannot pay until we have the Tenant's consent. If you have joint persons forming the Tenant, all of them must agree.

Where there IS a dispute about the Deposit at the end of the Tenancy

9. You must use reasonable efforts to reach a sensible resolution to the dispute as soon as practicable after the Tenancy ends.

A tenant can ask us to repay the Deposit at any time after the Tenancy has ended. You must agree to us releasing promptly any part of the Deposit that does not need to be held back to cover breaches of the Tenancy Agreement. We will take your instructions at the time regarding the amount to be withheld.

If the Tenant asks us to repay some or all the Deposit, and we do not do so within 10 days from and including the date of the Tenant's request, the Tenant can notify the Tenancy Deposit Scheme of a dispute. The Scheme will then direct us to pay the disputed amount to the Scheme. We have 10 days, from and including the date we receive the Scheme's direction, to send in the money.

If we protect a Deposit with the Scheme on your behalf, you hereby authorise us to pay to the Scheme as much of the Deposit as the Scheme requires us to send. We will contact you to keep you informed, but we will not need to seek your further authority to send the money to the Scheme.

The Tenancy Deposit Scheme will review the Tenant's claim and decide whether it is suitable for independent alternative dispute resolution. Usually, this will take the form of adjudication, but it may involve assisted negotiation or mediation. "Alternative" in this context means an alternative to court proceedings. It is intended to be a faster and more cost-effective way of resolving disputes. The Scheme does not make a charge to landlords or tenants for using the alternative dispute resolution service if it relates to an AST.

If the Tenant's claim is referred for alternative dispute resolution, we and you will be invited to accept or contest the claim. You must notify the Scheme whether you agree to submit the dispute for alternative dispute resolution within 10 Working Days from (but not including) the date of the Scheme's communication to you. If you do not respond to the Scheme by the deadline, you will be treated as having given your consent to alternative dispute resolution.

Agents and landlords are permitted to refer a dispute about the Deposit to the Tenancy Deposit Scheme. If you or we refer a Deposit dispute to the Scheme, the Scheme will contact the Tenant to confirm whether the Tenant will agree to alternative dispute resolution. If there are joint persons forming the Tenant, all the joint persons must agree. A tenant who does not reply to the Scheme is NOT deemed to consent to alternative dispute resolution. If the Tenant (or all joint persons forming the Tenant) do not agree to alternative dispute resolution, and do not agree to the Deposit deduction(s) you claim, you will need to begin court proceedings if you wish to pursue your claim.

- a. If the parties agree to adjudication, the adjudicator's decision is final and there is no right of appeal. Further information about adjudication is available free to download from www.tenancydepositscheme.com.
- b. The Tenancy Deposit Scheme will pay the disputed amount to the person(s) entitled within 10 days beginning on the date the Scheme receives notice of (a) the adjudicator's decision; or (b) an order from the court that has become final; or (c) an agreement being reached between you and the Tenant.
- c. If you order any work to be done at the Premises before a dispute has been resolved, you do so at your own risk. There is no guarantee, if you incur expense, that a dispute will ultimately be resolved in your favour.

Where the Tenancy is not an AST

10. The Deposit does not have to be protected by law. However, the Tenancy Deposit Scheme will make its independent alternative dispute resolution service available to you as our client, because we are a Member of the Scheme.

If a dispute arises you, we or the Tenant will contact the Scheme. Then:

- a. the Scheme will propose what they consider to be the most effective way of resolving the dispute (assisted negotiation, mediation, adjudication or arbitration);
- b. you, we and the Tenant must consent in writing to the proposed method if we all want to proceed (if we don't, the options are to negotiate or litigate);
- c. the parties will have to pay a fee of £600 (Inc. VAT) (or such other minimum fee as the Scheme may set from time to time) or 10% of the Deposit plus VAT, whichever is the larger amount.
- d. The Scheme will not start the dispute resolution process until all parties have agreed in writing to use the Scheme and paid the applicable fee and the disputed Deposit to the Scheme.

Joint Landlords

11. If there is more than one person forming the Landlord, any of you will be able to participate in alternative dispute resolution. TDS does not accept liability to any one or more joint persons forming the Landlord by acting on the instructions of any other joint person forming the Landlord. TDS does not accept directions from joint persons forming the Landlord to deal only with instructions agreed unanimously by joint persons. If you want all decisions to be made jointly, this is something that should be agreed between the persons forming the Landlord prior to requesting adjudication. It will then be a matter for the persons forming the Landlord to resolve among themselves if one or more of them have not complied with that agreement.

Warranty

12. The Landlord warrants that all the information he has provided to the Agent is correct to the best of his knowledge and belief. If the Landlord provides incorrect information to the Agent which causes the Agent to suffer loss or causes legal proceedings to be taken the Landlord agrees to reimburse and compensate the Agent for all losses suffered.

Schedule 6: Deposit Handling (Landlord to Hold)

1. If you/the Landlord decide(s) to hold the Deposit you must tell us before the Tenancy Agreement is signed. We will transfer it to you within fifteen days of receiving it in cleared funds. OR We will arrange for the Tenant to forward the Deposit direct to your bank account. You must then register it with a tenancy deposit protection scheme within thirty days of the Deposit being received by us or by you if the Tenancy is an Assured Shorthold Tenancy ("AST").
2. If the Tenancy is an AST you must ensure that you comply with the rules of the relevant Scheme, including serving on the Tenant the Prescribed Information including any terms and conditions, leaflets or other information required to be given to the Tenant or Relevant Person.
3. If you fail to protect the Deposit within the statutory time frames the Tenant can take legal action against you in the County Court. The Court will make an order stating that you must pay the Deposit back to the Tenant or lodge it with the custodial scheme which is known as the Tenancy Deposit Scheme ("TDS"). In addition, a further order will be made requiring you to pay compensation to the Tenant of an amount between one and three times the Deposit the sum being up to the discretion of the judge.
4. You will be unable to serve or enforce a valid Section 21 Notice on your Tenant until you have protected it and served the Prescribed Information or you have returned the Deposit in full (or the agreed balance of it) to the Tenant, or the court has disposed of any proceedings relating to the return of the Deposit. We have no liability for any loss suffered if you fail to comply.
5. If you instruct us that you do not want us to protect a Deposit for an AST, we shall not be liable for any loss suffered or cost incurred by you if you fail to comply with your obligations to protect the Deposit and give prescribed information together with other relevant documents. You must pay us for any loss or inconvenience suffered or costs incurred by us if you fail to comply with those obligations. This clause will not apply if the reason for your failure is because we failed to send you the Deposit within 20 days of receiving it.
6. The Agent shall be entitled to deduct from any deposit that may be paid by a Tenant of the Landlord's Property any fees or other monies properly due and payable by said Tenant to the Agent.

Warranty

7. The Landlord warrants that all the information he has provided to the Agent is correct to the best of his knowledge and belief. If the Landlord provides incorrect information to the Agent which causes the Agent to suffer loss or causes legal proceedings to be taken the Landlord agrees to reimburse and compensate the Agent for all losses suffered.

Schedule 7: Safety Legislation

The Furniture and Furnishings (Fire) (Safety) (Amendment) Regulations 1993

1. It is a criminal offence to let Premises with upholstered furniture or soft furnishings containing foams that cannot be proven to comply with the above Regulations. By signing this Agreement, you give us authority to remove any item that does not have a fire label attached to it. The Regulations require that specified items must be match resistant, cigarette resistant and carry a permanent label.

Electrical Equipment (Safety) Regulations 1994

2. You are responsible for providing instruction books for all items of electrical equipment and for ensuring that all electrical appliances within the Premises comply with the above Regulations. You should also ensure that all electrical installations are safe and have them checked regularly. If we need to arrange for a safety check under these Regulations, there will be an administration charge as shown in Schedule 1 in addition to the cost of the safety check itself.

Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1994

3. It is a criminal offence to let Premises with gas appliances, installations and pipework that have not been checked by a Gas Safe Registered Engineer and found to be safe. You will need to provide us with a copy of a Gas Safety Certificate ("GSC") carried out no more than twelve months previously. If this GSC is not sent to us when you return this Agreement you give us authority to arrange for a gas safety check. The GSC will need to be renewed at twelve monthly intervals. If we are managing the Premises, we will arrange for a new GSC automatically at your expense if you do not provide us with a new one at least 5 working days before the existing one expires. If we arrange for a GSC there will be an administration charge as shown in Schedule 1 in addition to the cost of the GSC. We need to give your Tenant documentary proof of your compliance with these Regulations at the commencement of the Tenancy and within twenty-eight days of the GSC being renewed. If you use your own contractor, we will need proof of their Gas Safe registration. No Tenancy can commence until we are in receipt of a valid GSC. If we are not managing the Premises, it is the legal responsibility of the Landlord to arrange for the gas safety check and for a copy of the Gas Safety Certificate being given to the Tenant annually. We have no liability if the Landlord fails to comply with the Regulations. Gas Safe now recommends that a carbon monoxide detector is installed in all properties. Records of safety checks must be retained for at least two years. All servicing, repairs or replacement of gas appliances must be carried out by a 'Gas Safe' registered engineer.

Part "P" Building Regulations (Electrical Safety in Dwellings)

4. From January 1, 2005 the above Regulations came into force requiring qualified personnel to carry out certain electrical work at premises. To ensure compliance with the Regulations we will only use a competent person to carry out any electrical work at the Premises. If the Landlord wishes to use his own contractor, we will need written proof that he is currently registered with an approved self-certification scheme before issuing instructions. In the absence of such proof we will instruct our own contractor if managing the Premises. We do not instruct contractors if we are not managing the Premises.

Smoke Alarms and Carbon Monoxide Alarms

5. It is the law that all newly built premises from June 1992 must have mains fitted smoke alarms with battery back-up. From October 1, 2015 the Landlord will have the legal obligation to fit smoke alarms on each storey of the Property and a carbon monoxide detector in any room with a solid fuel appliance before entering any new Tenancy. In addition, the Landlord is required to have the detector and alarms tested prior to the start of the Tenancy and to hold records of such tests. We will arrange fitting of the alarms and detector if required prior to the start of the Tenancy; and testing of the appliances prior to the start of the Tenancy. Maintenance of the appliances is the Landlord's responsibility during the Tenancy. The Tenant will be responsible for testing the alarms and detector during the Tenancy, replacing all defective batteries and informing the Landlord or the Agent of any defect in the alarm or detector.

Energy Performance Certificate (“EPC”)

6. In order to comply with the European Economic Union (EEU) legislation on Energy Performance Certification, all properties going on the market for letting must have an EPC. A copy must be given to the Tenant with written details or prior to the first viewing. The Landlord must provide us with an EPC when first giving instructions. The Premises cannot be marketed without an EPC as the first page must be provided to the applicant with written instructions. A fixed penalty for every property marketed without an EPC may be imposed by the Trading Standards Officer. We can arrange an EPC subject to the charge shown in Additional Services as well as the cost of the EPC.

Legionnaires' Disease

7. In accordance with the Health & Safety Guidelines 274 Part 2 a landlord is responsible for the checking and monitoring of all water systems in their properties. This means an initial check should be carried out to ascertain the risk level of Legionella. As with all advisory legislation we strongly recommend you consider carrying out these risk assessments. The Agent can hold no responsibility for any issues that occur because of these not being carried out.

Internal Blinds and European Safety Standards

8. New European Regulations now apply to the installations for raising and lowering blinds; and the movement of curtains across windows. This means that new blinds and curtains being installed by a contractor will have fixed cords or ball bearing pulls to prevent any danger of asphyxiation to a young child; and a warning notice with the purchasing material. Existing blinds and windows may need to be fitted with safety features to ensure compliance to ensure safety. If we are managing the Premises, we will check all blinds and curtains on a management visit and if necessary, arrange for the relevant safety feature to be fitted at the Landlord's expense. If we are not managing the Premises, it is the Landlord's responsibility to make such checks and arrange the fitting of any necessary safety feature. We have no liability if such precautions are not carried out.

Furnishings

9. Removing or replacing all furnishings, which do not comply with the Furniture and Furnishings (Fire Safety) Regulations 1988. Any furnishings left behind must comply with current fire resistance requirements.
